

I believe it is extremely important that we do all we can to encourage and maintain as free and independent a press as possible. Cross-ownership of media is a serious threat to the quality of information published. Please maintain protections that help preserve independent media voices.